President Westbrook,

University of British Columbia.

Dear President Westbrook:

I have consulted with the members of the French Department in town and have sent you a night message in answer to your telegram recommending the following for your positions.

Mr. F. C. A. Jeanneret at present on our staff of University College would allow his name to go in for the Assistant Professor's position if there is a chance eventually for a headship. He is a very good man and is at present Registrar of University College also.

Mr. A. F. B. Clark, a graduate of University of Toronto and Harvard, at present on the staff of Washington University, Seattle, is an excellent French scholar. He was exchange for Harvard in Paris for a year. His wife also is a good French scholar and I think is also teaching in Seattle.

For the post of Instructor the name of Mr. Conacher now at Queen's University, Kingston, has been recommended. He taught at Upper Canada College and was several years in Switzerland also.

Yours very truly,

President's Secretary.
